

European treatment and transition management of high risk offenders – a justice cooperation network (JCN)

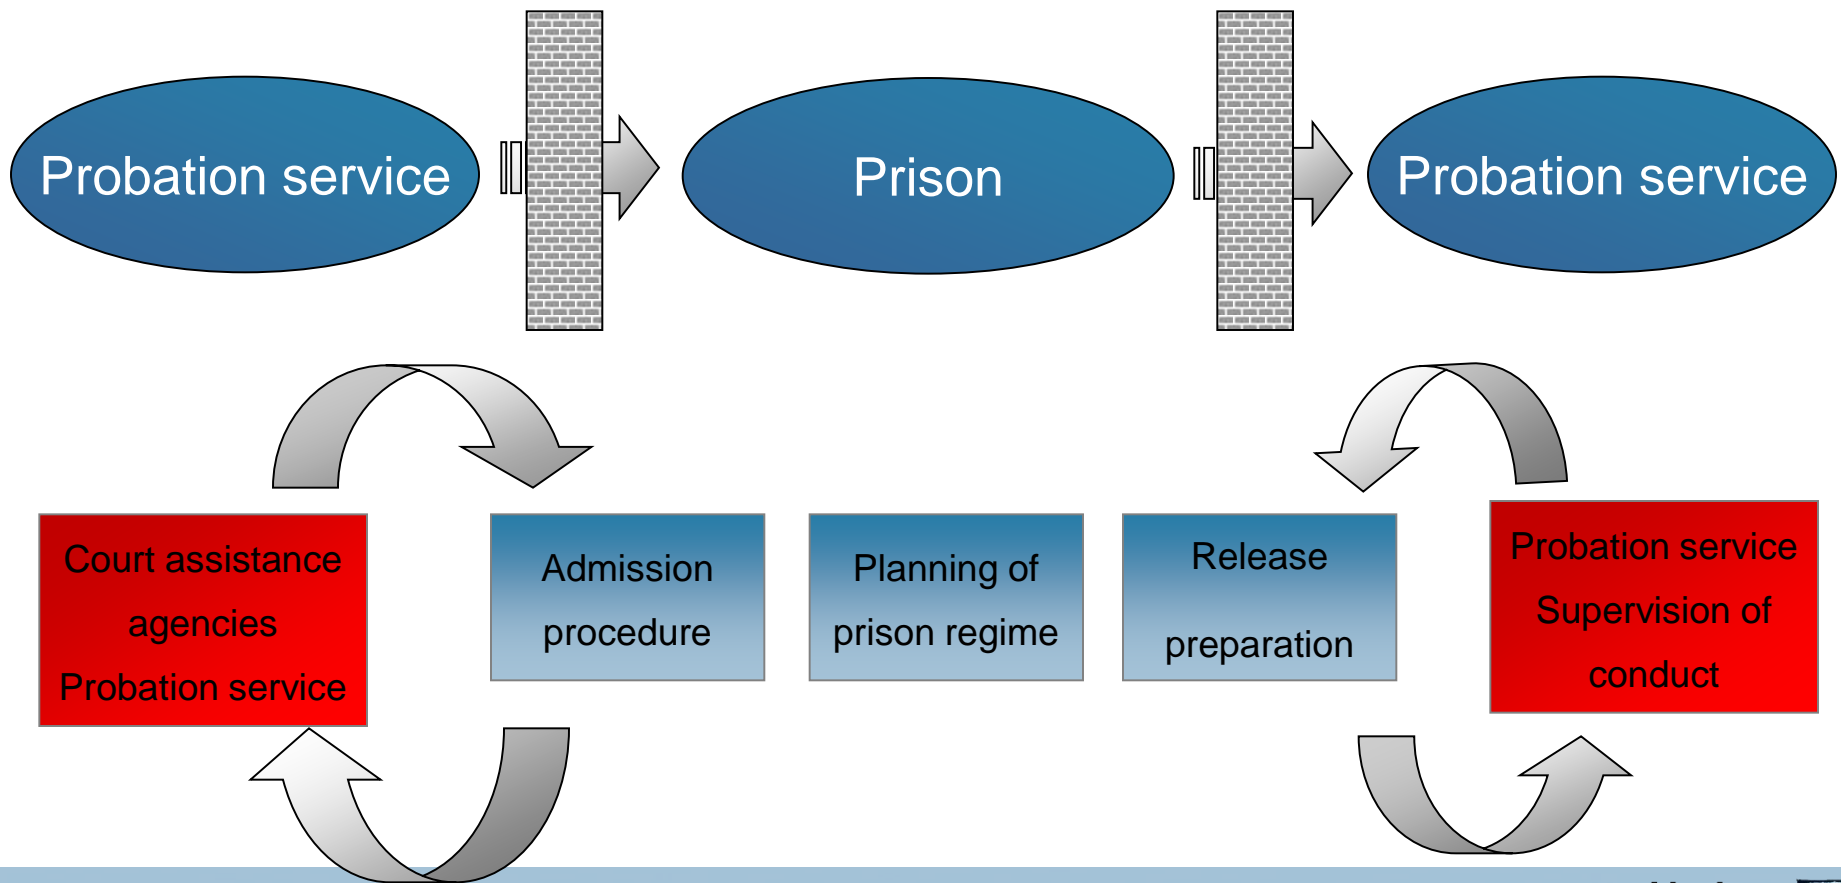

Workshop 1 - Tallinn, March 14th 2013

Description of the existing services
(prison, probation, others)

Procedure at the interface

Structure of case studies

1

- Convictions
- Length of imprisonment

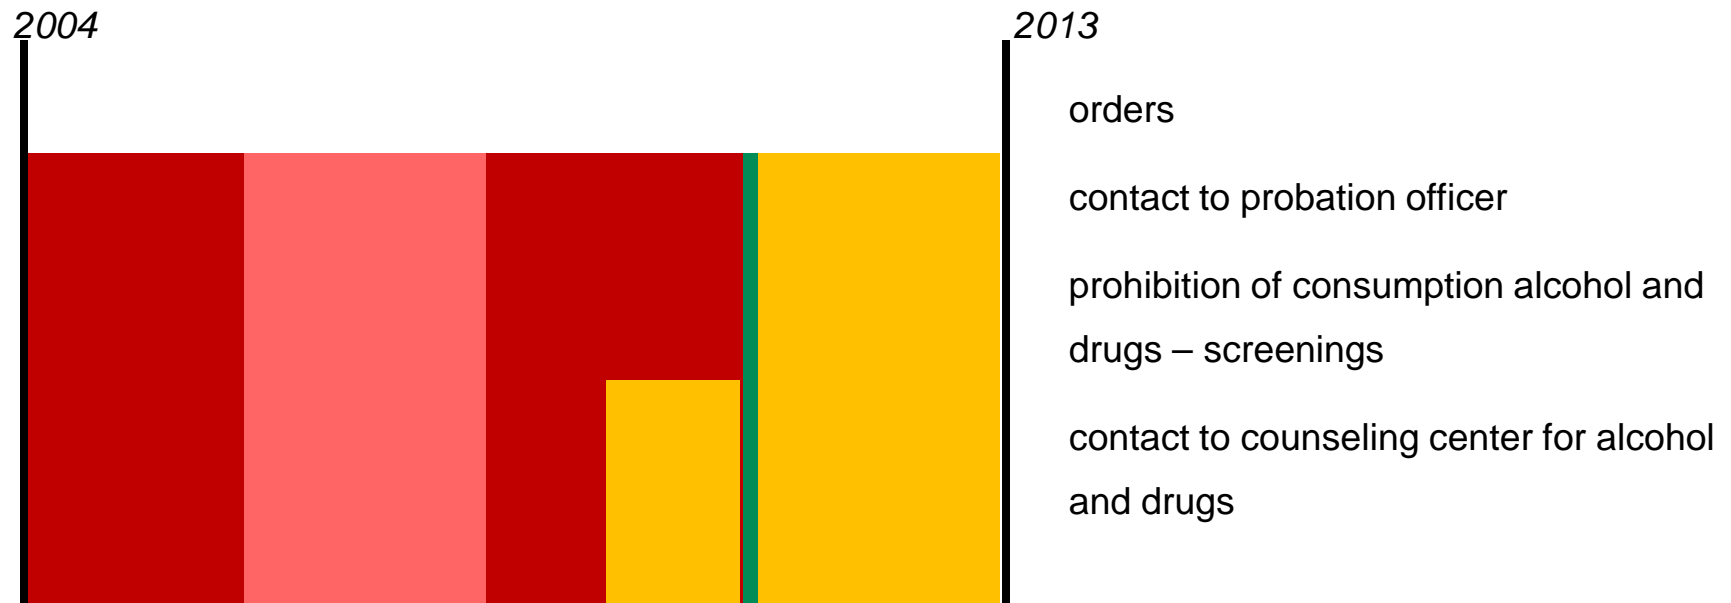

2

- Treatment programs in prison
- Treatment results & professional estimate

3

- Release preparations
- Ambulant offender management

Case 1: Mr. B. (*1982)

Imprisonment

Forensic unit

Release

Ambulant offender management

Case 2

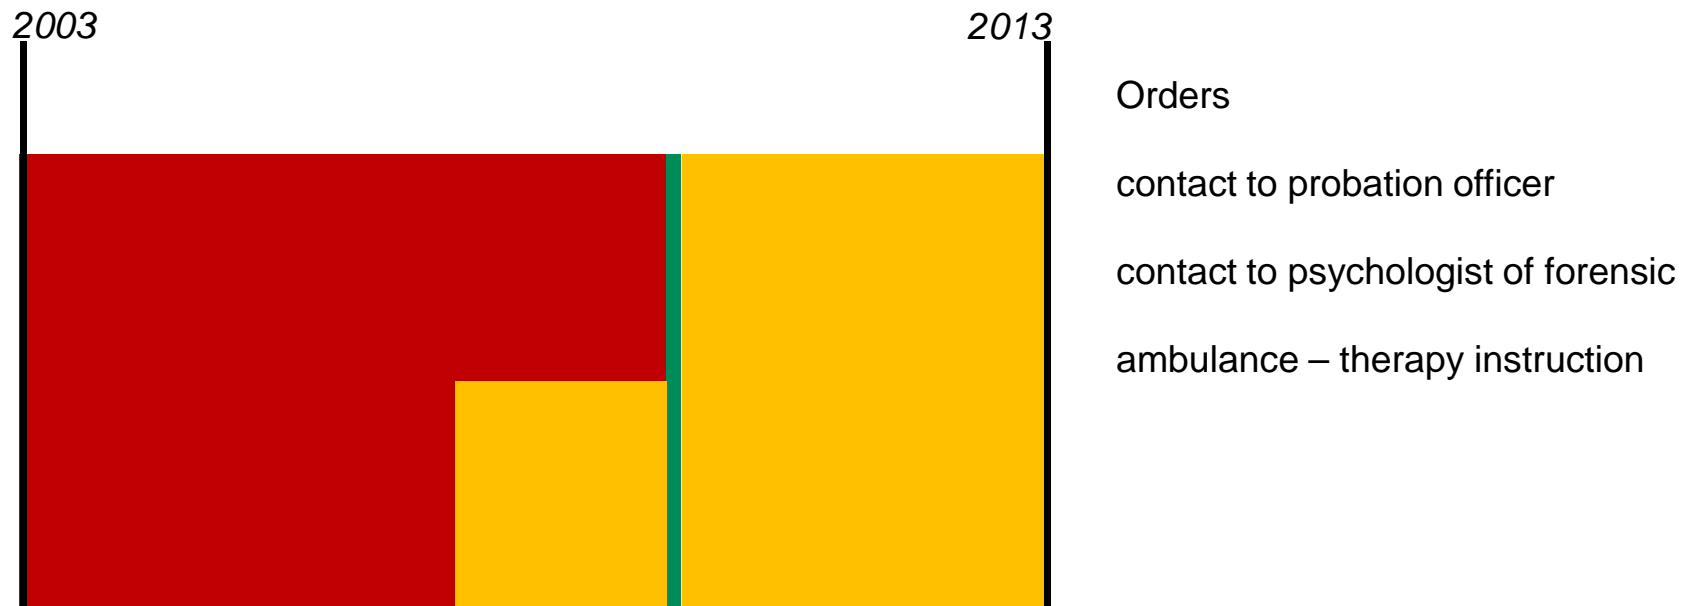

Name: Mr. S.

Born: 1977

*Imprisoned from 27.05.03-25.06.10 for rape & sexual compulsion (4 years and 7 months), theft (1 year &
10 months) and bodily harm (1 year)*

Waldeck Prison, Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania

Case 2: Mr. S. (*1977)

Orders

contact to probation officer

contact to psychologist of forensic ambulance – therapy instruction

Imprisonment

Release

Ambulant offender management

Case 3

Name: Mr. W.

Born: 1961

Imprisoned from 1990-2011 for murder, aggravated battery & prisoner's mutiny (15 years) and for hostage-taking & prisoner's mutiny (5 years)

Waldeck Prison, Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania

Case 3: Mr. W. (*1961)

Imprisonment

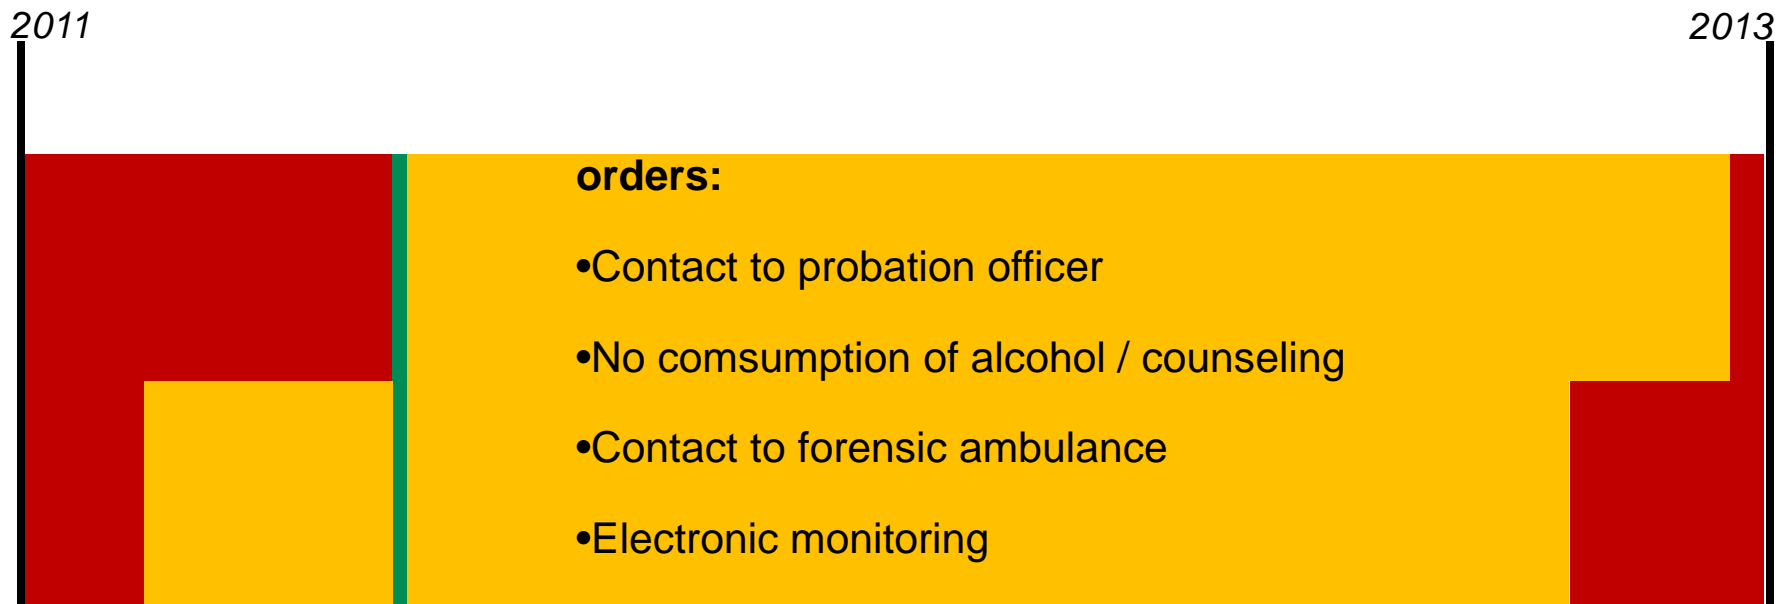

Release

Ambulant offender management

Case 3: Mr. W. (*1961)

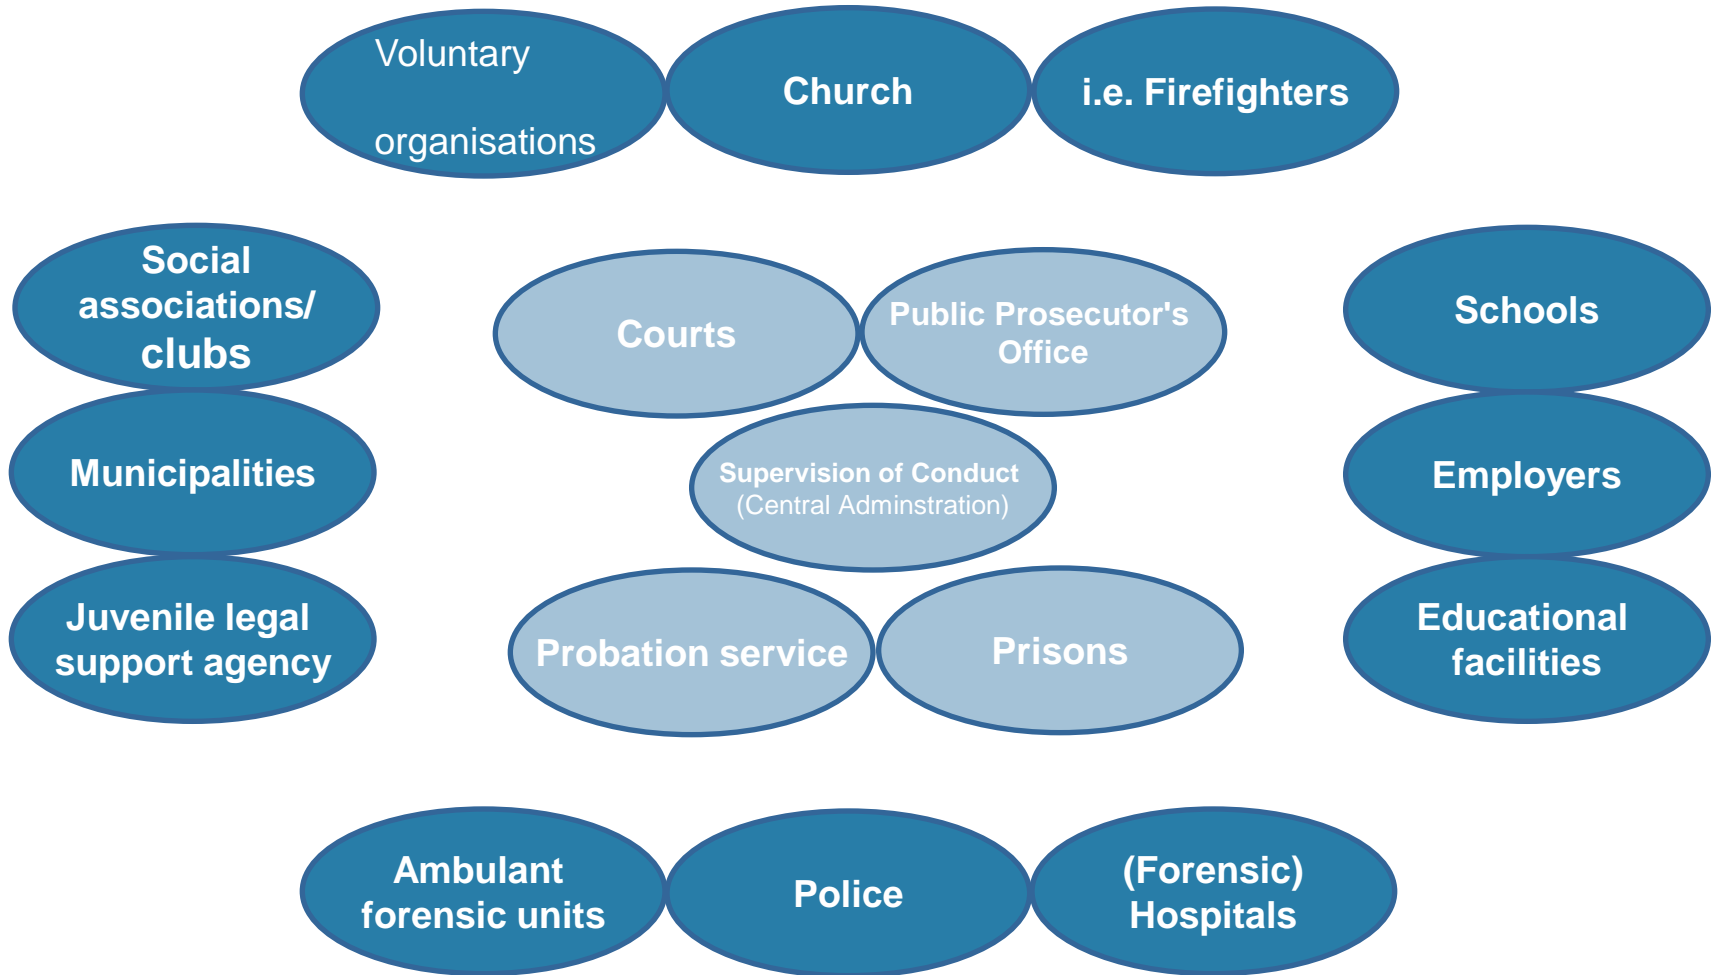

Imprisonment

Release

Ambulant offender management

Ministry of Justice
Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania
<http://www.jm.mv-regierung.de>

PowerPoint Presentation: Jan Winkler

